Priority

The effective date of the subject matter in the claims in this application is January 4, 2002.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-3, 8-9, 11-13, 18-19, 22-24, 29-30, 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Deshpande et al. (US Publication 2002/0059458).

Deshpande disclosed (re. Claim 1,11,22) receiving a request from a client to a server via a network in accordance with a Hypertext Transfer Protocol (HTTP) to stream a media file of a given type; (Paragraph 37) passing the request to a servlet running in conjunction with the server; (Paragraph 44); parsing the request using the servlet to identify elements of the media file to be transferred to the client (Paragraph 44) and streaming the identified elements from the server to the client as a HTTP response.(Paragraph 58)

Deshpande disclosed (re. Claim 2,12,23) wherein parsing the request comprises determining a processing action to be applied to the elements of the media file, (Paragraph 41) and wherein streaming the identified elements comprises applying the processing action to the elements.

Deshpande disclosed (re. Claim 3,13,24) wherein parsing the request comprises determining a parameter applicable to the processing action (Paragraph 41), and wherein applying the processing action comprises processing the elements of the media file responsive to the parameter.

Deshpande disclosed (re. Claim 8,18,29) wherein receiving the request comprises receiving a request for a certain portion of the media file, (Paragraph 58) and wherein parsing the request comprises selecting the elements of the media file to be transferred responsive to the request. (Paragraph 44)

Deshpande disclosed (re. Claim 9,19,30) wherein the elements of the media file comprise an ordered sequence of frames, and wherein selecting the elements comprises selecting a segment within the sequence. (Paragraph 89)

Deshpande disclosed (re. Claim 32) wherein the servlet comprises a subset of the instructions, and the subset of the instructions comprises instructions written in a platform-independent, object-oriented computer language. (Paragraph 44)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4-7 ,14-17, 10,20-21, 25-28, 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Deshpande et al. (US Publication 2002/0059458) hereinafter referred to as Deshpande, in view of Kalra et al. (US Patent 6490627) hereinafter referred to as Kalra.

Deshpande did not disclose (re. Claim 4,14,25) wherein determining the parameter comprises determining a limitation on a media playing capability of the client, and wherein the processing action comprises modifying the identified elements in response to the limitation; (re. Claim 5,15,26) wherein determining the limitation comprises identifying a network bandwidth, and wherein modifying the identified elements in response to the limitation comprises altering the elements responsive to the network bandwidth; (re. Claim 6,16,27) wherein determining the limitation comprises determining a resource level provided by the client, and wherein modifying the identified elements comprises selecting the identified elements responsive to the resource level; (re. Claim 7,17,28) wherein applying the processing action comprises transcoding at least one of the elements of the media file into a desired media format; (re. Claim 10,20,31) wherein the elements of the media file comprises a plurality of media tracks temporally juxtaposed in parallel, and wherein selecting the elements comprises selecting, one or more of the tracks. (re. Claim 21) wherein the server comprises a cluster of servers, arranged so that the HTTP request is handled by one of the servers in the cluster, and the servlet is run on a different one of the servers in the cluster.

Kalra disclosed (re. Claim 4,14,25) wherein determining the parameter comprises determining a limitation on a media playing capability of the client (Kalra- Figure 15A, Column 15 Lines 45-55), and wherein the processing action comprises modifying the identified elements in response to the limitation (Kalra- Column 16 Lines 35-40); (re. Claim 5,15,26) wherein determining the limitation comprises identifying a network bandwidth (Kalra- Figure 15B, Column 16 Lines 35-40), and wherein modifying the identified elements in response to the limitation comprises altering the elements responsive to the network bandwidth; (re. Claim 6,16,27) wherein determining the limitation comprises determining a resource level provided by the client (Kalra-Column 15 Lines 60), and wherein modifying the identified elements comprises selecting the identified elements responsive to the resource level (Kalra-Column 16 Lines 67) ; (re. Claim 7,17,28) wherein applying the processing action comprises transcoding (Kalra- Column 19 Lines 50-55) at least one of the elements of the media file into a desired media format; (re. Claim 10,20,31) wherein the elements of the media file comprises a plurality of media tracks temporally juxtaposed in parallel (Kalra- Figure 2B), and wherein selecting the elements comprises selecting, one or more of the tracks (Kalra – Column 16 Lines 15-20); (re. Claim 21) wherein the server comprises a cluster of servers, arranged so that the HTTP request is handled by one of the servers in the cluster, and the servlet is run on a different one of the servers in the cluster. (Kalra- Figures 13,14)

Deshpande and Kalra are analogous art because they present concepts and practices regarding streaming media files. At the time of the invention it would have been obvious to combine Kalra into Deshpande. The motivation for said combination would have been, as Kalra suggests (Kalra- Column 1 Lines 25-30), to provide compact and distortion-free streaming media that is matched to the computational power available.
